Today

Today we celebrate Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ as king as revealed to us by the Magi. In this revelation, God's flood of light illumines the darkness. Like rain that waters the ground, the light of mercy shines on all people. Our job is to let it flow through us so everyone we meet will know God's good news.

We welcome the Elbiata Singers from Goessel High School, who will be blessing us with special music during our worship service.

Today is also Pastor Karen's sendoff. Please join us at noon for a potluck meal to celebrate Karen's 10 years of ministry with us.

The children's focus on water ends today. The children will bring the coins they have collected during the holiday season to the front during the children's story. The sheep in the foyer will still be accepting contributions this morning. The money collected by the children, by the sheep, and at the Christmas Day service will be given to MCC for its WaterWorks projects.

We are so glad you are here with us to worship God and experience God's love. This morning you were greeted by Deloris and Donavon Schmidt and Carrie and Lewis Unruh. A special welcome is extended to all visitors.

Childcare is provided in the nursery during the worship service.

10:45 a.m.—Sunday School for everyone.

On the table in the foyer are Prayer Request Cards. You are invited to fill one out if you have a request and return it to a pastor's box.

Next Sunday, January 13

9:30 a.m.—Next Sunday we will begin a journey through the Gospel of Mark that will take us all the way through Easter. Mark's Gospel begins with a bang: "The beginning of the good news of Jesus, the Messiah, the Son of God" (Mark 1:1). In this small verse, Mark prepares us for what lies ahead. However, when we get to the end of Mark's Gospel, let us remember that this was only the beginning.

As we begin a new year, let us open ourselves to receive Jesus in a fresh way. As we step out in faith, may we trust that God is with us. To celebrate this new beginning as a church, we will also share communion together during the worship service. In preparation, please take some time this week to reflect on how God might be calling you in this new year.

10:45 a.m.—Sunday School for everyone. All college-age people are invited to Les and Cynthia Goerzen's home right after the church service next Sunday for devotions and visiting, followed by lunch.
